When you think of flowers, think of ours.

fixed price, flexible wedding packages from only £150

Planning your wedding can be very stressful. There's so many things to organise and budget for. Our aim is to take the stress out of your wedding flowers and give you a real price and flexible options to work with.

We're offering you four fixed price packages to choose from. Our basic package starts from only £150. The prices may be fixed, but the packages are certainly flexible. We've put together a table which gives you an idea of how flexible these packages are. Whether you're looking for a basic package or the full works, or maybe something in between, there should be something here you'll like.

The examples given are not exhaustive and are purely to give you some idea of the flexibility within each package. Our pricing structure is simple too, starting with our standard option, with realistically priced upgrade options for luxury or exotic flowers.

It gets even better too. For example, if you like the look of option one for your bridal party and there's an option two that would suit you nicely for your reception venue, you can bolt the two options together. You can bolt together any combination of the options and upgrades you choose.

How are these packages so flexible? Easy, nothing actually has a fixed price. This is how we can offer you these amazing fixed price packages and still provide adequate flexibility with budgets that should suit most people.

Once you've chosen your option(s), we need to book your wedding date into our diary and arrange a consultation to discuss the finer details.

Maybe these packages aren't for you, if not we still offer a more traditional bespoke wedding service. Just drop us a line and we'll be happy to arrange a consultation to have a chat about your needs.

The pictures shown are examples of our own work and were made by our own expert florists.

fixed price, flexible wedding packages: the options

We've tried to make this as easy as possible, the table below might look a little complicated, but it's really quite simple. Down the left there's a list of all the items that are available for the options shown. Along the top there's four main sections, each main section is then split into subsections (for example A, B, C and D). Under each subsection you'll notice numbers in some of the boxes, these numbers tell you how many of that item are included in that particular package option. The last two rows of the table tell you how much it would cost to upgrade to luxury or exotic flowers for that particular option. Remember, these are just examples to show you the flexibility in each package, but if one of them is just what you're looking for and the price is right, then great! Looking for the works? Why not bolt together options two and three.
